

DOWNTOWN APEX

Downtown Apex stands as the hallmark of our community, representing one of the region's best-preserved turn-of-the-century railroad towns. Designated as a Historic District in 1994, its charming streets feature commercial and residential buildings dating back to the late 1800s, showcasing a delightful variety of architectural styles. Many of these buildings hold a place on the National Register of Historic Places.

Shop, Dine, & Experience

Explore downtown Apex, where shopping, dining, and experiences intertwine to create a memorable visit. Wander through boutique-lined streets filled with unique treasures. Indulge your palate with delectable dining options, from cozy cafés to upscale eateries. Quench your thirst at taprooms and breweries, where locally crafted beers and artisanal brews await.

Sculpture Walk

The Apex Sculpture Walk invites the community to engage in a meaningful artistic experience. This outdoor exhibit features captivating sculptures throughout Downtown Apex, connecting to Town Hall and Hunter Street Park. Download the Ottocast app to hear artists narrate the story behind each piece and enjoy the full audio tour! Sculpture Walk maps are available at the Depot.

The Historic Depot

The Apex Historic Depot is an important landmark that preserves the town's rich history as a former train station. This building now serves as the Town's Welcome Center and also houses the Town of Apex Economic Development Department, as well as the Apex Chamber of Commerce. The Depot reveals an insight into Apex's past through literature, building architecture, and its' historic caboose.

The Halle

Across the street from the Depot, the Halle Cultural Arts Center is a creative hub, offering a diverse range of arts programming for all ages. The Halle features a 150-seat theater, as well as two galleries showcasing a variety of artwork, fostering a community-focused space filled with enriching experiences.
